

Dinosaur Fact or Fiction

By easykidsparties.com

(For personal use only)

1. Tyrannosaurus rex was a herbivorous dinosaur. (False)
2. Velociraptors were roughly the size of a turkey. (True)
3. The Stegosaurus had two rows of large, bony plates on its back. (False)
4. Dinosaurs and humans coexisted during the Jurassic period. (False)
5. The Triceratops had three long horns on its head. (True)
6. The Brachiosaurus was known for its swift agility. (False)
7. Pterosaurs were flying dinosaurs that lived alongside other dinosaurs. (True)
8. The Ankylosaurus had a club-like tail that it used for defense. (True)
9. Dinosaurs are classified as reptiles. (True)
10. The Spinosaurus is considered the largest dinosaur to have ever existed. (True)
11. The Stegosaurus and the Tyrannosaurus rex lived during the same geological period. (False)
12. Dinosaurs were the first animals to develop feathers. (False)
13. The Archaeopteryx is often considered the first bird. (True)
14. The Brachiosaurus was a bipedal dinosaur. (False)
15. The Diplodocus had a long neck and a whip-like tail. (True)
16. Plesiosaurs were dinosaurs that lived exclusively in the water. (False)
17. The Allosaurus was a plant-eating dinosaur. (False)
18. The Triceratops is a type of ceratopsian dinosaur. (True)
19. The Velociraptor had a keen sense of smell. (False)
20. Dinosaurs became extinct due to a massive meteorite impact. (True)
21. The Tyrannosaurus rex had tiny, non-functional arms. (True)
22. Dinosaurs were the dominant species on Earth for over 100 million years. (True)
23. The Brachiosaurus was a carnivorous dinosaur. (False)
24. The Apatosaurus was formerly known as the Brontosaurus. (True)
25. The Iguanodon is considered one of the earliest known dinosaurs. (True)